

Where the need arises we provide litigation services for our clients. This however is a last resort where other means of dispute resolution has failed. We conduct our cases for litigation with the optimum regard for excellence at all levels of our judicial system. We pride ourselves on our commitment in providing world class advice to our client. We see litigation as a last resort, where all else fails.

Our litigation experience is extensive and covers areas of corporate and commercial law as well as other areas like Banking, Mortgages, Mortgage Foreclosure, Debt Recovery, Securities Law, Land Law, Intellectual Property, Breach of Contract Law etc.

Litigation has been one of the competence of our firm and we have been involved in major commercial litigation and have successfully delivered first rate services in this regard.
